

Yangon University of Foreign Languages

Myanmar Department

B.A (Myanmar) Programme Level Learning Outcomes

At the end of four-year B.A(Myanmar) programme, learners will be able to do as follow.

	Area	PLOs
1	Advanced Disciplinary Knowledge and Practices	The students will be able to apply Myanmar language in various domains such as social, business, education, the ethical code with the B2 level of CEFR.
2	Enquiry-Based Learning	The students who have accomplished the Bachelor course will be skillful to study the situations of Myanmar continuously. They will be able to read and listen well the economy, culture and lifestyle written and spoken in Myanmar language and judge logically. They can also understand the various situation of Myanmar and ethnical groups in all over the country.
3	Cognitive Skills and Critical Thinking	The students will have the ability to solve the problems, to give suggestion, to understand, to give personal opinions, to judge correctly, to analyze well on any situation.
4	Communication, Adaptive and International Skills	The students will be able to have clear and firm opinion and decision when they communicate the various people in the environment.
5	Global Outlook (Global Competence)	The students will be able to deal and collaborate with various people . They will have the ability to take right decision with responsibility, accountability and sense of ethics in any situation. The students will be able to value cultural diversity and reinterpret the place of the self as an identity culturally situated in the global context.